JEN HATCH • CHRISTOPHER STREET FINANCIAL TEAM

Gay Money. Straight Advice.

- Specialists in the unique financial planning issues of LGBT individuals and families
- Comprehensive, personalized strategies to grow and preserve assets
- Independent wealth manager with full-service solutions

Since 1981, the Christopher Street Financial team has focused on serving the unique needs of same-sex couples and LGBT individuals. In addition, we have helped countless straight friends to successfully navigate their financial lives.

We believe that getting the investment component right is just the first step toward financial success. As financial planners we take a comprehensive, highly strategic approach to growing and guarding your nest egg. Our team of professionals includes specialists in estate planning, taxation, insurance and retirement planning. We believe that every investor can benefit from our approach.

In these challenging times, wouldn't you agree that a second opinion is essential?

Jen Hatch, President of Christopher Street Financial, has more than 20 years of experience advising institutional and individual investors. We invite you to schedule a time to meet Jen in either our Westchester or Manhattan offices.
